WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY—THE MEETING SATURDAY NIGHT.—A meeting, called by Mayor Smith, was held Saturday night last in the chamber of the Board of Aldermen, to conelder the practicability of celebrating in this city, by a grand parade, the birthday of Gen. Wash by a grand perade, the birthday of Gen. Washington. There were present: Courdand H. Shith. Mayor of the city; F. L. Brockett. Auditor; E. E. Downham, President of the Board of Attermer; also Win. H. Marbury, from the Board of Attermer; also Win. H. Marbury, from the Board of Attermer; James S. Douglas, and Win. S. Moere, from the Common Council; Capt. F. L. Smith, from the Alexandria Light Intentity; Capts. B. L. Partlow and John E. Delva, from St. John's Academy endets; C. C. Chichester, and Win. Murtaugh, from the Friendship Fire Company; Maj. Geo. Daffey, from the Sun Fire Company; Richard L. Carne and John Landon, from the Hydraulion Steam and John Lancon, from the Hydraulion Steam Fire Company; A. T. Ramsey, from the Columbia Steam Fire Company; E. R. Carlin, from the Relief Hock and Ladder Company, and R. T. Lucis and other citiz ins.

Mayor Smith called the meeting to order and stated that he had been informed that all the other cities in Virginia intended to celebarte the 221 of February this year, the one hundredth anciversary of the surrender of the British arms at Yorktown, and believing that Alexandria had a poculiar right to participate in this general rejuicion, he had invited the represontatives of the different fire companies and military organizations, together with several members of the City Council, and a committee of business men, to a conference to consider the question of whether or not the day should be e lebrated in this city as in former years. He did not think Alexandria should be behind her sister cities in this matter, as he and arstood that several of the citizens were disposed to be generous. The main obstacle in the way of a parade was the expense, but he thought that with an appropriation of $100 by the Ung Council, which he intended to recommend in a message Tuesday night, and subscriptions from the citi z ns, a sum sufficient could be raised to bear all necessary expense of the proposed c lebration the next question was, would all the erganization tions in the city participate in the c lebration. As this question ctuld only be answered by the representatives of these organ z dioss, he would like to hear from those present.

Mayor Smith was then elle ed sharman, and B. D. Stallings, successry.

R. L. Carno stated that the Hydraulian Company had always participated in these general parades, and while he had not ensuited any of the members in regard to this particular one, he had no during the that they would take part in this elebration. The members of the appropriate on termer occasions of this hind here. company on former occasions of this kind, have heen assessed at $2 each. Next year-1882. was the segui extennial of Washington's birthday, and he though: the consion ought to be appropriately celebrated. On the 22 I of February, 1832 there was a fine celebration which he had forgotten until a few days age, when he was enabled to recall the whole seems, by the fieding, among some old effects, a badge his lather were on the occasion. The was later and in the parade may year, and if both could not be gotten up to would prefer to have this one deterred until that time.

John Lannon said there would be a meeting of the lightrantion Company to night, and thought there would be no difficulty about the company coming cut.

A. T. Ramsey said a parade bad always cost

E. R. Carin tad the did not Labor the smill ment of the Rebel Hock and Ladder Cempany

Friendship Company, but there was to be a meeting Monday night, at which the question would be seted upon.

Major Deffey said he thought the San Compsey would ture out. He hered that if they Peverille, a well known religious street preach-undertock a parade this year all would go into tr. for should go ber dog.

R T. Lucis was in favor of a celebration and would do all in his poser to make it a enecies. James S. Douglass said that as a matter of sentiment, the calebration was one that all ought to participate in; as a matter of business. iso thought it would pay. The representatives of the different organizations aught to, relying upon the generosity of the people, pledge the participation of their respective companies. As a member of the Common Council, he would 2:70 his vote for an appropriation.

Capt. F. L. Smith still he would lay the matter before his company at the meeting tonight. So far as he was individually core inid. he was favorable to the proposed elebration R. L. Carce, principal of St. John's Academy, said the eadet cores of the Academy would parade whether there was a general celchration or not.

Wm. II. Marbury, of the Board of Alderthen, and Wm. S. Moere, of the Common Counof, said they would favor an appropriation by the City Coursil.

E E. Downham, President of the Board of Aldermen, heartily concerred in all that had been said, and did not think there was a business man in the city who would not contribute to the expense of the celebration. He was willing to subscribe his there, and was also in lavor of an appropriation by the City Council. Mr. Douglas offered the following revolution, which was unanimously adopted: As it is peculiarly appropriate that the cit of me As it is picultarly appropriate that the cit and Alexandria, around which cluster so many plea ingrs obtains connected with the Father of our Country, should celebrate in an appropriate manner the birth of that illustrious man in this, the one hundredth, anniversary of the surrender of the British arms at Yorktown; therefore beit Resolved, That committees be appointed from the various organ zations of the city to make suitable arrangements for the celebration of the approaching 221 day of February.

The chair, under the resolution, appointed he following gentlemen to wait on the cargains and solicit contributions: Wm. H. Marbury. theo. E. Frerch, S. G. Brent, John Lapnen, R. T. Lucis, R. J. Daisgerfield, Liout, F. F. Marbury, Mrjor W. C. Potter, F. R. Carlie, John Sullvin, and Wm. Martsugh.

The mosting then adjourned till Widnesday night, when a committee on programme will be appointed. M. E. CHURCH.—Rev. Mr. Pearer is about to close his third year as prator of the M. B. Clurch in this city in the midst of the most remarkable revival which has been known in that courch for years. Three weeks ago he began special services, Rev. F. H. Purdy, was to astrict, but old not much his engagement. Every day for two weeks come number of persons have professed conversion. Yesterday was a day of most interesting services. Twenty-six persons were received into the courch as the first instal-neut of members. Twenty-three of them pre-suited themselves before the congregation and were given the right hand of fellowship by the parent and several of the oldest members lie for sometime past, numbered about three hundred. At night Mr. Pearce preached to a very full house on the "Shipwreck of the Scul," from the text "Have made Shipwreck" 1 Tim. 1-19 the text "Have made Shipwreck" 1 Tim. 1-19

After the sermon twenty-six persons went forward as penitents, and ten rose in the congregation for prayers. The "altar services" were continued with great interest till a late hour.
The audience was dismissed a number of times before the people would leave the house. Next Tuesday will be observed as Temperance day

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPH NEWS

An Engine's Fatal Peacemaking.

PITTSBURG, PA, Feb 7.-A dramatically tracic condent occurred near Newcastle, Pa, Trursday, which has just come to light. Miller and Robert Cameron, who were brothers, and Allen Cameron, their cousing, were walking along the railroad track, when Rebert and Allen commerced to quarel. They seized hold of ese: other and ral a terrible struggle on the track. At this time the South bound expreswas due, but the men were oblivious of the tact. While they were tusselling the train came in sight annuing at a tagh rate of speed in order to make up for lost time, it being then several minutes late. Allen Cameron then saw his danger and endeavored to got out of the road and drag his antagonist with tim, but the latter was chatisate and could not be removed. Miller Cameron, who seems to have been trying to pacify the men, then made frantic efforts for their rescue, and with his aid Allen succeeded in getting free from the grasp of Robert and threw himself off the track, at the same time exerting all his strength to save Robert. By this time the train was down upon them, and neither of the man was entirely out of reach of the engine. Allen was struck by the steps of the lecomotive and thrown away several feet, He received a fracture and displacement of the knee cap and a gash on the back of his head, caused by falling on some furnace cinders Robert Cameron fared still worse, being struck by the coxesteher with great force and hurled considerable distance, alighting among the cinders used for ballasting the road. His left lag was broken near the ankle, and the cinders' cut horrible gashes in his head. When picked up and placed on the train he was bleeding profusely and was uccontaious. Miller Cameren escaped unburt. The train was stopped as quickly as possible after the secident, and the injured man were brought on it to the depot where medical aid was hastily summoned. Robert died shortly after, and Allon will be bedridden for life.

STEAM VS MUSCLE. - Two things absolutely necessary to make perfect reasted coffee is uniformity of hear and regularity of motion; these can only be obtained by use of steam. The opposite is clearly shown in hand roasted Coffics by its many imperfections. All choics grades or Coffees will swell when subjected to a uniform heat. McBuracy's Steam Rossted Cof fe s are alany the choicest grades. Their daily increased sales is a good proof of superiority of their Steam Roasted Coffees over that roasted by the hand machine and muscle.
